THE FUTURE

There is always a need on the part of Seniors to have a teacher with whom they can identify. We seem to remember "the good old days" in his classes, as well as the more recent memories of this past year.

For his tireless efforts in making a better student council, for his friendship and aid during our groping years, and for his patience with our French pronunciation, we dedicate the 1970 edition of the SE-HI to David Garner.

David Garner

---WE DEDICATE

Edward Harris

Education can be a drudgery to the student, or at least not very exerting. Consequently, it is indeed unusual to find a teacher who stimulates his students' search for knowledge while making it fun at the same time. Though he is a relatively new face in our high school lives, we have come to respect him.

For his work in putting together the PROWLER and for taking some of the drudgery out of our path, we dedicate the 29th edition of the SE-HI to Edward Harris.

CLOSING THE DOOR-

YET MEMORIES LINGER

At 8:20 each morning another day has just begun to be recorded in the annals of Seagrove High School. The crowded halls, the bustling of students, and the tension and excitement of a sports event are just a few images in the pageantry of our school. It is such reflections from such an important segment of our lives which I hope you will find captured beneath the covers of the SE-HI.

As you know, this is the last year the SE-HI will be published. It has been my wish to "go out with a bang." The SE-HI staff has worked to make this last annual the best ever. It is for this great effort that I would like to thank each member of the staff. I would also like to express a special thanks to our adviser, Miss Pinion, and to all the people who made an effort to cooperate.

As we close the door on the collection of memories we call Seagrove High School, let us look forward to the new school next year, to college, to a life career, and to happiness. Yet, as we close the door and advance further along the path of life, let us leave room in our hearts for memories of the place where we lived together, laughed together, and wept together.

Dale McKee

The Principal's Message

Much is being said about the opening of a new school and our students that will be going to it. We wish to stress here that we are not losing our school, for the new school is our school as Seagrove is our school. This is a landmark event in that we are growing, and this makes us a part of a larger community.

Moving into a new building is no reason to stop saying "our school." It is a cause for increased pride not only because of the progress but also because of the opportunities afforded for increased educational advantages and for making new friends.

To the seniors we say that you represent us in whatever endeavors you undertake. We assure you that as your school record is complete and as it follows you into the work world, we will do our best to polish the bright spots brighter and hope that any gray spots will fade away. As you make your way in the life of the non-student, we wish that all the breaks be favorable to you.

In Memory

ADRIAN MILTON BROWN
May 27, 1952 - January 23, 1963

On January 23, 1963 we were saddened by the death of our classmate and friend, Adrian Milton Brown. A victim of esophageal varices he had missed many school days.

Never complaining, always smiling, Adrian was a friend to all. His memory will remain in our hearts forever.

CLASS POEM

Twelve years ago, we took the first step
In the long climb to reach the top.
Though some times were rough and hard to face,
We strived onward and did not stop.

Year by year, we steadily worked on,
Struggling with homework, teachers, and tests.
Now that we've reached the top of the stairs,
We're glad that we gave our best.

Because as we look back on the long way we've come,
It's not the hard work we remember--
It's the wonderful friendships and good times we've had
That we hold in our hearts very tender.

The joy and fellowship of working together
And striving for our one common goal
Has brought us together in bonds of friendship and love,
That will be with us, even when we grow old.

Now that the time that we've worked for is here,
And we leave the place on which we've come to rely,
We take one last look back and sigh a long loving sigh
As we say, Good-bye, dear old Seagrove, good-bye.

CLASS HISTORY

In the autumn of 1966, our class, composed of 103 students, entered Seagrove High School as freshmen. We were sponsored by Miss Inez Kennedy, Mr. Fred Lovin, and Mr. Floyd Watkins. To guide us through this first year of high school and the many new experiences in store for us, we chose Sherri McNeill as president, Jimmy Lanier as vice-president, Dianne Auman as secretary, and Joe Allen and Tony Williamson as reporters. Four freshmen made the basketball team: Karen Auman, Ramona Auman, Jean Graves, and Sherri McNeill. Dianne Auman, Anne Graves, and Wanda Williams were cheerleaders. The boys participating in baseball were Dennis Crisco, Philip Leach, and Lacy Scott. Our other activities for the year included a Christmas party and a trip to see The Sound of Music.

After a well-earned summer vacation our class, now composed of 86 students, returned to Seagrove High School as sophomores. We were sponsored by Mr. David Garner, Mr. Fred Lovin, and Mrs. Reba Smith. Leading the class were Dennis Crisco, president; Benny Cagle, vice-president; Ramona Auman, secretary; Dianne Auman and Dale McKee, reporters. Three sophomores were tapped into the Beta Club. They were Patsy Brown, Benny Cagle, and Dale McKee. The sophomores who made the basketball team were Karen Auman, Ramona Auman, Jean Graves, Sharon Loggains, Sherri McNeill, Benny Cagle, Dennis Crisco, Steve Graves, Philip Leach, Hal McKenzie, and Daryl Richardson; Dianne Auman, Anne Graves, and Wanda Williams were on the cheerleading squad. The boys on the baseball team were Steve Graves, Philip Leach, Lacy Scott, and Jerry Williams. The boys participating in track were Dennis Crisco, Andy Hancock, and Dale McKee. Our other activities included a Christmas party, a study of Julius Caesar, and a trip to see The Comedy of Errors.

After a fun-filled summer, our class of 79 enthusiastic juniors were back again. We were welcomed by our homeroom teachers, Mr. David Garner and Mrs. Pamela Mabry. Leading the class this year were Benny Cagle, president; Hal McKenzie, vice-president; Andy Hancock, secretary; and Clinton Collins and Dale McKee, reporters. The seven junior marshals were Chief Dale McKee, Cheryl Ashworth, Patsy Brown, Benny Cagle, Clinton Collins, Lowell Hayes, and Phyllis Hayes. Nine class members were tapped into the Beta Club: Cheryl Ashworth, Dianne Auman, Ramona Auman, Clinton Collins, Wanda Cox, Lowell Hayes, Phyllis Hayes, Marie King and Janet Richardson. The eight juniors on the basketball team were Karen Auman, Ramona Auman, Sherri McNeill, Benny Cagle, Dennis Crisco, Steve Graves, Philip Leach, and Daryl Richardson; the cheerleaders were Dianne Auman, chief; Anne Graves and Jean Graves; the manager was Hal McKenzie. The boys on the baseball team were Steve Graves, Philip Leach, Kenny Metters, Lacy Scott, and Daryl Richardson, the manager. The boys participating in track were Andy Hancock, Roger Harris, Lowell Hayes, and Dale McKee. Some of the highlights of our junior year were presenting our class play, Seventeenth Summer; receiving our class rings, and attending the Junior-Senior Banquet. Our other activities included selling magazines, having a Christmas party, and making a trip to see Romeo and Juliet.

SENIORS AT LAST! The moment had unbelievably arrived. However, only 77 out of the 103 who attempted the journey survived. We were sponsored by Mr. Edward Harris, Mrs. Barbara Holt, and Miss Dorothy Pinion. To lead our class for the last time, we chose Clinton Collins as president, Philip Leach as vice-president, Sherri McNeill as secretary, Audrey Hiatt as treasurer, and Nancy Johnson as reporter. Sarah Caudill and Joyce Williams were tapped into the Beta Club. The seniors on the basketball team were Karen Auman, Ramona Auman, Sherri McNeill, Deborah Pope, Vonnie Scott, Benny Cagle, Dennis Crisco, Steve Graves, Roger Harris, Philip Leach, and Daryl Richardson; the cheerleaders were Anne Graves, chief; Diane Auman; Jean Graves; and Wanda Williams. The boys participating in baseball were Philip Leach and Lacy Scott. Some of the highlights of our senior year were the presentation of our class play, The Reluctant Reunion, the Junior-Senior Prom, the last publication of the Se-Hi Annual, and the graduation exercises.

REMEMBER WHEN?

9th Grade — Remember, Edith Greene, when Mrs. Harris examined your biscuits in Home Economics I and they fell apart?

Remember this famous line of poetry, Seniors? "Quoth the Raven, 'Nevermore'."

Remember, Janet Richardson and Jeannie Cooper, when you stole J. W.'s shoe?

10th Grade — Remember, Ray Kiser, when Mr. Lovin threw erasers at you for sleeping in his geometry class?

Remember, Phyllis Hayes, when you accidentally lost your belt during an oral book report?

Remember, fifth-period geometry class, when Mr. Lovin picked up a cigarette filter for a piece of chalk?

Remember, agriculture class, when you locked Mr. Boling in the library?

Remember when a certain boy crawled upon a table and rang the bell with a nail and got the entire class out 30 minutes early?

11th Grade — Remember when we tackled that first term paper?

Remember when we had ice fights in chemistry?

Remember when the juniors took the candles home from the Junior-Senior?

Remember all the fun we had decorating for the Junior-Senior?

12th Grade — Remember when Audrey Hiatt tried to model her coat without her skirt in Home Economics III?

Remember when Dennis Crisco climbed out of the window in economics?

Remember this famous line from Macbeth, Seniors?

"Double, double, toil and trouble.
Fire burn and cauldron bubble."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of '70, realizing that our days in old Se-Hi are few, wish to leave some of our most prized possessions to the class of '71 in this, Our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we leave our appreciation for their guidance and understanding and to the student body our love for Seagrove High.

ARTICLE II

I, Joe Allen, do hereby will and bequeath bus 96 to whoever can drive it.
I, Shirley Asbill, do hereby leave all my talking to those who enjoy it, like Ray McCaskill.
I, Cheryl Ashworth, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Washington, D. C., to some lucky junior.
I, Dianne Auman, do will and bequeath my love for yelling the Tigers on to victory to anyone who has a big mouth.
I, Doyle Auman, do hereby will and bequeath a picture of Macbeth to Mr. Harris.
I, Karen Auman, do hereby leave my ability to get in trouble at ball practice to Trudy Scott, who gets in as much trouble as I do.
I, Ramona Auman, leave all my joy of being a senior to the juniors.
I, Danny Bailey, do hereby leave willingly.
I, Karen Beane, do hereby leave my ability to run my mouth to anyone who is willing to stick his foot in it.
I, Cleo,Brady, do hereby leave!
I, Pat Brady, do hereby leave my ability, my junky notebook, my craziness, and, especially, Macbeth to Listeen McSwain.
I, Janet Brower, do hereby leave my ability to get in and out of trouble to Pam Saunders, and I hope she will have more luck with Dr. Peppers and Mr. Bell than I did.
I, Patsy Brown, do hereby leave my fun at Beta conventions to anyone who can have as much fun as I do.
I, Benny Cagle, do hereby leave my title of co-captain of the boys' basketball team to anyone who can lead the team in turnovers.
I, Annie Cassady, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with other people to Listeen McSwain.
I, Sarah Caudill, do hereby will and bequeath a bottle of Excedrin to the 1971 annual staff.
I, Betty Chriscoe, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to understand Mrs. Powers to anyone who can.
I, Flona Chriscoe, do hereby leave my ways of getting out of study hall to anyone who can find the ways I did.
I, Joe Chriscoe, do hereby leave my trowel and position in brickmasonry to Mack Chriscoe.
I, Clinton Collins, do hereby leave my love for school to all the rising "fun-seekers."
I, Jeannie Cooper, do hereby leave my fondest memories of walking the noisy and bustling halls and exchanging warm thoughts and smiles with fellow students to Janette Needham, whose beautiful smile never seems to fade.
I, Michael Cox, do hereby leave my fondness of stockcar racing to Gurnie Greene.
I, Wanda Cox, do hereby will and bequeath my typewriter in office practice to anyone who can use it more than I did.
I, Dennis Crisco, do hereby leave my love for basketball to Allen Copple.
I, Janice Culler, do hereby leave my love for study hall to anyone who can have as much fun as I did
I, Mitchell Davis, do hereby leave my love for Mr. Bell to Jerry King.
I, Tommy Gillispie, leave my trowel to whoever's hand it fits.
I, Anne Graves, do hereby will and bequeath my Charlotte address and phone number to Randy Trogdon.
I, Jean Graves, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to write letters to Ray Thomas.
I, Steve Graves, do hereby will and bequeath all my basketball skills to Martin Needham.
I, Peggy Green, do hereby leave my ability to stay single until I get out of school to Judy Causey.
I, Edith Greene, do hereby will and bequeath my love, happiness, and smiles to all the soul-sisters at Seagrove.
I, Andy Hancock, do hereby leave bus 87 to anyone who doesn't mind getting ulcers.

I, Roger Harris, do hereby will and bequeath my speed and my code name (Charlie Scott) to Dennis Cassady.

I, Brenda Hayes, do reluctantly leave my warm spot on the basketball bench to Phyllis Cagle in hopes that she can "cool it."

I, Larry Hayes, do hereby leave my ability to be late for school to anyone who has a dislike for brickmasonry as I have.

I, Lowell Hayes, do hereby will and bequeath bus 81 to anyone who is qualified to drive it.

I, Phyllis Hayes, do hereby leave my ability to get on teachers' nerves to anyone who can handle it.

I, Patty Hemphill, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to slip out of class to Ann Allen and Susan Cagle.

I, Audrey Hiatt, do hereby leave my desire to all future seniors that they may find two things: true happiness and a true friend.

I, Van Hodge, do hope that everyone has a good time next year at the new school.

I, Donald Hudson, do hereby will and bequeath my parking place to the fastest car at Seagrove and my '63 Chevy to Kay Williams.

I, Elaine Hunt, do hereby leave my love for Macbeth to anyone who can understand it

I, Peggy Hussey, do hereby will and bequeath bus 90 to anyone who can ditch it better than I can.

I, Nancy Johnson, do hereby leave my love for Home Economics III to all the second year girls.

I, Vickie Joyce, do hereby will and bequeath my crazy laugh and smiles to Rama McDonald.

I, Marie King, do hereby will and bequeath my love for English to any student who loves it as much as I do.

I, Ray Kiser, leave what little ability I have to do anything to anyone who can do it better than I.

I, Jimmy Lanier, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to type to anyone who can type better than I.

I, Philip Leach, do hereby leave with pleasure!

I, Sharon Loggains, do hereby leave my love for graduation to anyone who looks forward to it as much as I do.

I, David Luther, do hereby leave bus 84 to Larry Williams in hopes that he can control it better than I.

I, Phyllis Macon, do hereby leave my ability to stay single while a senior to Becky Yow.

I, Linda Matthews, do hereby will and bequeath my place in P.E. class to Listeen McSwain.

I, Dale McKee, do hereby will and bequeath my task of publishing the annual to anyone who likes headaches.

I, Hal McKenzie, do hereby will and bequeath my trig book to anyone who can do the problems.

I, Sherri McNeill, do hereby leave my love for basketball and coaches to Ann Allen and Susan Cagle or anyone else who can stomach them

I, Sidney McNeill, do hereby leave school to the birds.

I, Kenny Metters, do hereby leave my agriculture class to Jerry King.

I, Sandra Miller, leave all my "quiet and studious" ways to Rama McDonald. She needs them.

I, Mike Nelson, do hereby leave my love for women to anybody who can handle them better than I.

I, Vonita Norton, do hereby will and bequeath my English book, especially Macbeth, to Valjean and Debbie.

I, Allen Piner, do hereby leave my parking place to whoever gets it first.

I, Deborah Pope, do hereby leave my love for basketball to Janette Needham in hopes that she can accomplish what I could not.

I, Michael Register, have decided to take it all with me.

I, Daryl Richardson, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my deep, deep love for economics and sociology to all those unlucky juniors.

I, Glenda Richardson, do hereby leave Mr. Harris to George and C. E. Teague, Mr. Watkins to Janette Needham, and my favorite seat in study hall to Gay Law.

I, Janet Richardson, do hereby leave the joy of being a senior to any junior who can enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Wanda Ritter, do hereby leave my ability to put people in their place to anyone who can do it as I can.

I, Terry Saunders, do hereby leave my parking place to anyone who is lucky enough to win a Mach I.

I. Lacy Scott, do hereby leave my sideburns to Mr. Spencer.

I, Joyce Williams, do hereby will and bequeath my title of D.A.R. Good Citizenship to the most deserving junior girl.

I, Wanda Williams, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to fall down to any cheerleader who falls down in the dressing room.

I, Barbara Williamson, do hereby leave my English class to anyone who can understand Macbeth better than I.

I, Tony Williamson, leave, gladly!

SOME PEOPLE NEVER leave town. Bill Spencer left and came back to this little country town, just a village really. It's called Seagrove, a stone's throw from the bustling town of Asheboro a few miles up the road.

Or down the road, depending on which way you're traveling.

Bill Spencer grew up in Seagrove, departed to attend college at Pfeiffer, then returned to coach the school's basketball team, a 1-A power with such figures as 91 rebounds one night, 114 points, too.

"I guess we've been over 100 points about two other occasions," confirmed Spencer whose Tigers believe in living it up in their last year of survival. This small school joins the consolidation movement as part of Southwestern Randolph next fall.

There won't be any more Seagrove then.

The Tigers aren't particular whom they feast on. The 114 points came against Farmer, the school merging with them to form Southwestern. They also flattened West Montgomery, the only defeat for this 2-A school.

Expected Strong Team

"With three starters and some other letterman back, we expected to field a winning team," admitted Spencer. "But then we lost our opener to Benhaven after leading at the final whistle."

How's that? Lose a game with the clock expired and one point ahead. It happened. The official called a foul as the hand moved to zero, Benhaven's player stepped to the free throw line and converted twice, and Seagrove was 0-1.

The Tigers recovered quickly, smothered their next 11 opponents before tangling with West Montgomery a second time. West socked them hard for Loss No. 2, but it's been a one-way street ever since, nine victories without another defeat.

It leaves Seagrove 20-2 and a top contender for a berth in the state 1-A tourney which the Tigers just missed last season. They bowed to Stoneville in district play, a Stoneville club which made it to the state championship game.

But Deep River gave the Tigers a scare, down by six with only 59 seconds to go. Coach Spencer credited a pressing defense for the comeback which wiped out a 17-point at one stage.

"We were ahead only once," recalled Spencer. "That came 18 seconds from the end when one of our boys stole an inbounds pass and went in for the layup." Deep River fell to the Tiger charge.

Who Are These Fellows?

Who are these fellows? First, there's guard Steve Graves, 6-footer with a 25-point average. And 6-foot-3 forward Phil Leach. Forward Benny Cagle (6-2) helps form the trio which started a year ago.

Junior center Martin Needham stretches to 6-foot-7, and "we don't play to him." Guards Roger Harris and Al Copple, swing man Daryl Richardson, guard Dennis Crisco, sophomore center Mike Lamb (6-6) all get into the Tiger Act.

"We're pretty much a running team," agreed Coach Spencer, "hitting 52 per cent of our shots. But we have to call on our defense occasionally, like in the Deep River game."

The Tigers finished 20-10 and just missed a trip to the state tourney in 1969. With their rapid-fire offense and excellent height, they're well on the way toward attaining heights a Seagrove team seldom even dreamed about in past years.

This little school may bow out in style.

Seagrove Sweeps Twin Bill From Bethany; Tigers Win By 100-32

SEAGROVE — Bethany invaded Seagrove on Friday night, for a scheduled twin-bill basketball encounter, but it wasn't long before the bite was taken out of the Bulldogs by the roaring Tigers.

Uncaging their fierce offensive attack, the Seagrove cagers rolled to a convincing and lopsided romp over their visitors, as the Tiger boys hit the century mark in the scoring column with their easy 100-32 stomp.

The Tigerettes didn't have that easy of a cruise to victory, but still experienced very little trouble in rolling to their first victory of the year. They nearly doubled the score the Bethany girls, while racking up a 49-25 win.

This time it was a case of both Seagrove clubs having Tigers in their tanks, especially the offensive units, as they kept the cords humming all night long on the Seagrove ends of the court.

For Seagrove High, this was their first clean sweep of a twin-bill this season, bringing the Tiger record to a fine 2-1, while the Tigerettes are 1-2.

It took a little while for the girls encounter to get rolling, at least in the scoring department. The Tigerettes had doubled the score on their visitors at the end of the first period of action, but were ahead by just three points at 6-3.

The Lady Bulldogs were able to stay with the Tigerettes throughout most of the first half, although Seagrove did maintain their margin. In the second stanza, they connected for ten points while Bethany hit for eight, and the score at intermission was a 16-11 Seagrove advantage.

The Tigerettes began to pull away in the following third quarter and had built up a ten point cushion, at 27-17, as play headed into the final quarter. The roar of the Tigers was heard here, as they pumped in 12 more points, as the Lady Bulldogs could notch only eight and the Seagrove lassies sailed to their initial triumph.

A sparkling performance by Debbie Woodell carried the Tigerettes to their first victory, as she ripped the cords for 20 points. Trudy Scott fired in 10 points and Sherri McNeill racked up 12 points. This trio of sharpeshooters accounted scored.

Debra Livingwood with 8 points, Marcia Tucker with six points and Barbara Moore with five points topped the Bethany effort.

The boys contest was settled in the first quarter, as coach Bill Spencer turned his Tigers loose on the defenseless Bulldogs and they quickly ripped the nets for an overwhelming 31 point bulge.

With a host of Tigers on the loose, Seagrove almost literally ran the Bulldogs back to Bethany as they zoomed out to a 38-7 first quarter command and cruised on to their second victory.

The way the Tigers were burning the cords in the first half, and the way the Seagrove defense had Bethany bottled up, it appeared possible they could have racked up the 100 point in the first half. They left the floor at intermission riding atop a 59-12 bulge.

The second half was played mainly because the rules say that two equal halfs must be played, but the issue had long been settled as the Tigers took a 84-23 command into the final quarter.

This Seagrove scoring explosion was ignited by the shooting sparks of a well balanced attack. The leader was Roger Harris as he fired in 19 points, with Martin Needham canning 16 points, Steve Graves ripping in 15 points, Benny Cagle 14 points and Dennis Chrscoe 11 points. Alan Copple added nine points and Daryl Richardson connected eight points.

Top effort from Bethany was only nine points from James Isley and seven points from Ken Hanks. Thomas Bailey followed with four points.

Seagrove Tigers Capture Double-Header At Ruffin

RUFFIN — The roaring Tigers of Seagrove High School bounced back from having their 11 game winning streak snapped last week, as they racked up a 59-52 win over Ruffin on Tuesday night.

The Lady Tigers made it a complete Seagrove sweep over their host, as they romped to an easy 43-18 conquest of the Lady Trojans in the opening nights action.

The starting line - up for the Trojan boys squad was introduced as "The all senior, still unbeaten Trojans", but this fact made little difference to the Tigers.

Seagrove went about knocking off one of the top ranked teams in the state, their first taste of defeat, while posting their 12th win in just 14 contest.

It was a closely fought game throughout the night, with the Tigers controlling the action all the way but were never able to roll up the comfortable margin.

Seagrove displayed a fine performance on the boards, hauling down over 40 rebounds and notched a 48 per cent shooting average from the floor.

The Tigers moved out to a 17-15 first quarter advantage, connected for 13 more in the second stanza to leave the floor at halftime with a 30-24 lead. They were hampered by the fact that both Steve Graves and Benny Cagle were in foul trouble.

The hosting Trojans remained tough, and chipped away at the Tiger margin in the third quarter, but still trailed by 46-43 as play went into the final quarter. Seagrove didn't panic at the Ruffin comeback attempt and protected their advantage well the rest of the way.

Steve Graves was the top Tiger on the prowl, as he pumped in 20 points, with Benny Cagle following with 12 points. Strader with 17 points, topped Ruffin.

The Seagrove girls faced a much easier contest, wrapping up the decision in the first quarter as they zoomed out to an overwhelming 16-1 bulge and just coasted in from there.

By halftime their command had been stretched to 22-3 and they took a thirty point spread, at 34-4 into the final quarter. Susan Cagle filled the basket with a 19 point output to lead the way for Seagrove, with Sherri McNeill canning 11 points.

To a good friend,
It has been a real joy to be with you the last five years. I wish you all the luck in the world. I hope you luck in the future.

a friend,
Larry

Hal.

It's been good having you in my class this year. I've picked at you a lot this year, but you always took it in good nature. Always stay that way. With your size, if you'll keep working, you'll make a football player someday.

Best luck always
J. Worth Yount

Hal,
It has been nice knowing you for the five years of school I hope it will continue for the rest of the seven years of school. Also hope it will last for the rest of our lives.
Best wishes forever.
Jerry Kiser

Hal,

It has been nice knowing you this year you are a good sport to, I hope you are always like that to. I hope you always make good in class. I hope ~~God~~ God is good to you. May God Bless you.

Hal,

Summer is coming and you'll be getting out of school before we do. So I guess I be coming up there and spend a day or two with you. But I would like to say, you're the sweetest (HA HA →) little uncle a person could ever have.

Love ya!
Kathy

P.S. Stay out of trouble!
